* Readings to prepare for Chapel Bios

God has made a people for himself, and it all started with a couple who couldn't make people. This semester we'll spend some time marveling at the unexpected ways of God by looking at the life of Abraham and Sarah and stories of their covenant family.

Abram was a pagan living in Ur, when God called him to leave his homeland and follow him. He promised to bless him and make him the father of a great nation, even before he had a son. But Abram believed God, so he went with his wife Sarai and his nephew Lot and travelled to the land of Canaan. Abram's life was full of adventures, surprises, wars, lies, famines, miracles, and name changes.

Abraham was not always righteous, but God always is. He is the One who makes promises and keeps them. As he was faithful to Abraham, he is faithful to all his children. Because of his Son we will not be put to shame for following him wherever he calls us to go!

Stories of the Covenant Keeper

A Bible reading plan for courage to live by faith in the One who is faithful.
